

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ('FATCA') is United States (U.S.) law which has effect in New Zealand under the Double Tax Agreements (United States of America – FATCA) Order 2014 ('FATCA Order'). We are required by law to obtain client information where we hold client funds. If the information we require relates to any U.S. trust or any trust with a 'controlling person' who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. tax resident, we must advise Inland Revenue, which will pass relevant information to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. A 'controlling person' of a trust means the settlor, trustees, the protector (if any), the beneficiaries or class of beneficiaries and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust.

In addition to FATCA, New Zealand has endorsed the OECD's Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax Matters ('AEOI') which incorporates the Common Reporting Standard ('CRS'). From 1 July 2017, CRS will facilitate the annual cross border automatic exchange of information on 'financial accounts' between the Competent Authority of each country with which New Zealand enters into a bi-lateral agreement to implement CRS. There are substantial similarities between the FATCA and CRS regimes. This form also applies to CRS information.
